Universal Boilerplate

Easterseals is leading the way to full equity, inclusion, and access through life-changing disability and community services.

For more than 100 years, we have worked tirelessly with our partners to enhance quality of life and expand local access to healthcare, education, and employment opportunities. And we won't rest until every one of us is valued, respected, and accepted.

Through our national network of affiliates, Easterseals provides essential services and on-the-ground supports to more than 1.5 million people each year — from early childhood programs for the critical first five years, to autism services, to medical rehabilitation and employment programs, to veterans' services, and more. Our public education, policy, and advocacy initiatives positively shape perceptions and address the urgent and evolving needs of the one in four Americans living with disabilities today.

Together, we're empowering people with disabilities, families and communities to be full and equal participants in society.

Southern California

Easterseals is leading the way to full equity, inclusion, and access through life-changing disability and community services.

For more than 100 years, we have worked tirelessly with our partners to enhance quality of life and expand local access to healthcare, education, and employment opportunities. And we won't rest until every one of us is valued, respected, and accepted.

With more than 2,800 employees, 60-plus service sites, and hundreds of community partnership locations, Easterseals Southern California provides essential services and on-the-ground supports to more than 13,000 Californians each year. We offer programs throughout the lifespan, including child development and early education services, adult and senior day services, autism therapy services, independent living options, employment programs, and more. Since World War II, we have also served veterans and their families and caregivers through our Bob Hope Veterans support program.

Together, we're empowering people with disabilities, families, and communities to be full and equal participants in society.
